

A concept strategy is the direction the design is focused. Our concept strategy for D&D travel services is:

Experience Adventure

The research that was conducted by comparing and contrasting competitive travel agencies indicates that the embodiment of D&D travel services' design scheme should be to provide potential customers with the opportunity to create an individual or group custom experience of a vacation adventure.